

TARS HARD AT IT; HEINIE'S ON DECK

Practice Game with Washington
Team Called Off Yesterday.

Norfolk, Va., March 24.—The game scheduled for this afternoon between the Senators and the Tars was called off by Manager McAleer. The announcement was made by Skipper Clark, with the explanation that the big league team desired to continue the practice on secret signaling work. The game for Saturday is still scheduled.

The Senators are spending their last week on the local diamond, leaving for Richmond early Monday morning. They are scheduled to play the Colts on Monday and Tuesday afternoons.

Yesterday's visitors got in two excellent practices and the consensus of opinion is that the team was never in good condition so early in the season, and that the team is looking good and expects to make the team in a week.

The Tars spent nearly three hours on the field yesterday, from 11 to 2 o'clock. Heinie Busch, last year's short fielder, has arrived. He donned uniform yesterday for the first practice of the season. Heinie is looking good and expects to make the team in a week.

The crowd of the Mary Jane was augmented yesterday by the arrival of "Jack" Bonner, last year's clever second baseman, and Pitcher McCarthy, a new pitcher, but reputed to be an experienced and seasoned twirler. Skipper Clark has also been notified that Pitcher Bushey, a new twirler and well "rooted," will arrive in a day or two.

Bonner was on hand for the practice yesterday and seemed to be in fair condition. He is looking good and expects to make the team in a week.

The fact that there are several "Heinie" Busch, making a bid for it, is the opinion that he will be on the spot when the short field position is given out for keeps.

Will Report This Week.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg, Va., March 24.—Transportation has been sent to all of the players of the local baseball team, and the entire squad, with two or three exceptions, will be on hand by the close of next week. Hufmeyer, a catcher, will come April 8, and Sexton, a pitcher, will not report before June 1.

The squad will include the following players: Pitchers—Griffin, Brandon, Levy and Gehring; catchers—Lucia and Hufmeyer; infielders—Evans, Ziegler, Zimmerman, Plindell, Wood, Shupe and Manager Smith; outfielders—Jackson, Arthur Smith, King and Huffman.

The first exhibition game will be on April 9 with a division of the New York Giants, thus giving the squad more than a week to round into something like shape before getting into an actual game.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Lynchburg Baseball Association was held this afternoon in the office of J. A. Scott & Co., in the Lynch building, the stock being well represented. The election of officers for the coming year resulted as follows: President, J. M. McLaughlin; Vice-President, C. M. Guggenheimer; Secretary and Treasurer, R. Bruce Wilkinson; Executive Committee—J. M. McLaughlin, C. M. Guggenheimer, C. S. Adams, U. A. Scott and H. S. Hirsch.

SOUTHPAW FOXEN IS USED 9 INNINGS

Strikes Out Twelve and Allows
Just Two Singles—Manager
Charley Dooin Makes Wild
Throw to Third Base, and Nassau Men Romp Home.

Southpaw Foxen's steady pitching throughout the nine innings was the feature of the game at Broad Street Park yesterday, when the regular Phillies defeated the Princeton University nine by a score of 19 to 2. It was not a well played game—even if Manager Dooin does promise that he has picked men who will finish first or second in the pennant race, and we have seen our Colts, many a day, come much nearer putting the sphere into the lower garden beyond left field fence.

Dooin's throw to catch Dawson at third base in the fifth inning was wild by a yard, and before Bates could get the ball back into the diamond, only one run credited for Princeton. Bates scored the only earned run in the fifth. He singled, then stole second, and was safe in home on Grant's hit to right field, after sliding through Dawson's legs. The only time the fans made any display was when Princeton tallied, and this must have been in sympathy for the Nassauites.

Princeton Team Strong.
Princeton's showing, considering "stage fright," was creditable, and several of the costliest errors were on drives from willows that came around with force enough to have knocked off a plank; but the professionals, for some reason or other, couldn't do much with either Steve White or Greenbaum, and it seldom happened that the ball was wallowed solidly enough to start the crowd murmuring. Once the hefty Magee, or whom much is expected in bringing league honors to the Quaker City, soaked one on the nose, and gave a vague idea of the classy style that has made him famous.

Many lessons might have been learned by minor leaguers, and Manager Lawlor's squad were present from the way Dooin's men took advantage of every chance to go forward a base or two, and the six steals accredited the Phillies were all of the best variety, especially one of those by Magee. In the seventh, he struck out (surprisingly), stole second, and got in when Bransfield was an easy out from shortstop to first base.

Foxen in Classy Shape.
Before the game it was announced that after five innings Foxen was steadier than when he began, and was kept in just so he could show the benefits of his stay in Southern Pines. Foxen is a southpaw, and is one of the try-out squad who has been selected on account of his steady season work to do regular duty in the Eastern League this year and next fall. Twelve strikeouts, even against a team that was destined to defeat before the first ball was tossed, is a good record, and besides, he allowed only two hits—one scratcher. He allowed no free bases.

Steve White started in well for the Princetonians, and kept it up until Greenbaum succeeded him; but the players back of them juggled the ball at the proper time, and once first base was reached, Dooin's squad seldom stopped going until the circuit had been completed. What looked like a disaster came in the fifth, when Titus was hit in the head by a thrown ball at first base. But he recovered quickly, and he was back in the game. His error happened in the first, when he dropped Cunningham's fly.

TENNIS SCHEDULE
Virginia Team Has Excellent Prospects.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Charlottesville, Va., March 24.—Manager Minor C. Lee is arranging an attractive series of games for the tennis team. As yet nothing definite has been decided upon, but it is almost certain that the Virginia tennis team will play South Carolina on their own courts.

There is also a possibility of playing the Middlemarch and Annapolis and Davidson has written asking for a date. Dates with several other schools are in contemplation, but the present handicapped condition of the tennis team will not permit a very large schedule.

All of the men of last season's team are in good stead, with the experience gained from last year's games, they should be able to give a good account of themselves. The tennis courts are being put in order, and it will not be long before the men will be getting ready for the spring tournament.

BIG STRING OF RACERS ARRIVES FROM FLORIDA

Will Take Part in Jamestown Meet—Prospects
Are Bright, and It Is Believed That New Records Will Be Made.

Norfolk, Va., March 24.—The coming along Occidental, Jack Denbrough and the old campaigner, Reidmore.

A fast recent winner, who will sport silks at Jamestown, is Monami, the property of Captain P. M. Walker. This one will bear close watching.

Feenought II, a frequent winner around New York, and well known at Norfolk, is another one to watch for the bugle call. Ex-Jockey Joe Jones, who formerly rode for August Belmont, chairman of the New York Jockey Club, arrived with Crossover and Smug. Jones was quite successful here last spring with Crossover, and he is expected to do well in the last race here last spring.

Among the arrivals yesterday, was among the arrivals yesterday, coming straight from a victory at Tampa last week, Mike Shendy, ex-jockey, is training this one now, having purchased him from Tom Morris.

Osorine, also included in the Hatfield bunch, is the horse that took the speedy J. H. Reid into camp only four days ago at Jacksonville.

Old Green Morris, of "Judge Morrow" fame, has a star, two-year-old in his collection, named Edmund Adams.

King Avondale, who won no later than Monday of this week, will ship to-night from Jacksonville as will Another new comer is Ragman. This fellow does not seem to know how to lose, he having scored victories in his last five attempts and he looks better to-day than at any time since he was first seen. He was won at Benning's at the remunerative odds of 25 to 1. The famous ex-jockey, Gustafson, arrived today with Aunt Kate. The mare looks well and will do in the shorter distances. A fast sprinter in the consignment that arrived today and one that will make them all sit up and take notice is La Reine Hindoo. This outfit winner will take a lot of beating.

The well-known trainer, Harry Shannon, brought under his wing the fast mare, Ida D. and Manheimer. If appearance is any guide, these two horses will get in the pictures at the coming meeting.

J. Butcher, another trainer from the West, brought a money maker, Flying Footsteps, two handy horses in any company.

The Shields brothers, Will and John, Daytona, Fla., March 24.—A drenching midday rain marred the final day's program of the Daytona Beach automobile speed carnival, and the 12,000 spectators who had come out with the firm expectation of witnessing a repetition of yesterday's world-breaking record went away soaked and disappointed. No records were broken, and the feature of the day's program—the 300-mile race for a $5,000 trophy, had to be canceled, owing to the delay of more than an hour caused by the storm.

In the one-mile speed record trials some fast running was witnessed, but none of the well-known racers was able to approach the record established last week by Barney Oldfield, although Oldfield himself covered the distance to-day in 27.38.

First event—ten miles stock chassis, 161 to 210 inches—Wm. Byrle Hart, in a Buick, Altman, in a Hudson, was second. Time, 12:58.

Second event—ten mile handicap—Oldfield, in his Buick, made the distance in 27:58; Ben Kirschner, driving a Darracq, 37:24; Walter Christie, driving the Christie car, 33:15.

Third event—one-mile time trials—Oldfield, in his Buick, made the distance in 27:58; Ben Kirschner, driving a Darracq, 37:24; Walter Christie, driving the Christie car, 33:15.

Fourth event—second handicap—cap at the same distance to-day, was won by Altman (Hudson), time, 12:45; Oldfield, second, time, 12:58; Kirschner, third.
